We will also gain insight into Siemens's cybersecurity approach through a detailed conversation with their senior cybersecurity experts over dinner on October 22.

We have invited staff who work in the Judiciary, Foreign Relations, Homeland Security and Government Affairs, and Appropriations committees as well as Leadership offices in order to provide them with an in-depth conversation on the industry's approach to cybersecurity.

Attachment 4 – Question #14 – Description of sponsor's prior history of sponsoring congressional trips.

This is Software.org's sixth Congressional trip. Software.org is positioned to educate Congressional policymakers on cybersecurity and the software, data, and application economy by providing them with an opportunity to visit software companies to engage in high-level discussions with industry leaders.

Attachment 5 – Question #15 – Description of educational activities performed by sponsor (other than Congressional trips).

Software.org educates policy makers, stakeholders, and the general public at a global level through meetings and briefings, by developing and publishing studies and papers that explain policy and enforcement issues of interest to the software industry, by engaging the public through events and panels that reach wide audiences, and by partnering with leading organizations to support diversity, inclusion, and economic opportunity.

Attachment 6 – Question #20 - Reason for selecting hotel accommodations

We selected the Holiday Inn Sunnyvale because the rate meets the per diem rate and there is no minimum night stay. During our trip, a city-wide event in San Francisco is increasing hotel prices to $200-300 over the per diem rate and requiring the delegation to commit to a three-night stay. The Hyatt House Emeryville was chosen as lodging for the second night of travel because of its proximity to companies we will visit on the third day of travel and because its rate ($299) was closest to per diem.

Attachment 7 – Question #21 – Description of daily expenses compared to Federal Government per diem

Daily expenses for meals and other expenses will be at or below per diem rates. During our trip, a city-wide event in San Francisco is increasing hotel prices to $200-300 over the per diem rate and requiring the delegation to commit to a three-night stay. The Hyatt House Emeryville was chosen as lodging for the second night of travel because of its proximity to companies we will visit on the third day of travel and because its rate ($299) was closest to per diem.
